AFTER RECESS

The recess having expired, the House was called to order by the Speaker at noon.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, the Reverend Patrick J. Conroy, offered the following prayer:

Loving and gracious God, we give You thanks for giving us another day.

Bless the Members of this assembly as they set upon the work of these hours, of these days. Help them to make wise decisions in a good manner and to carry their responsibilities steadily with high hopes for a better future for our great Nation.

You have created Your people to live in an environment of great diversity of race, color, creed, and opinion. These differences enrich our human experience but also demand of us the need to negotiate preferences and opinions toward a common goal.

Please give to the Members of the people's House, in abundance, the wisdom, skill, and patience to see past their differences toward their commonalities in order to forge a strong and secure future for our Nation.

May Your blessing, O God, be with them and with us all this day and every day to come, and may all we do be done for Your greater honor and glory.

Amen.

HOUSE REPUBLICANS CONTINUE TO LEAD THE WAY PROMOTING JOBS

(Mr. WILSON of South Carolina asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. WILSON of South Carolina. Mr. Speaker, yesterday, Federal Reserve Chairman Ben Bernanke, a native of Dillon, South Carolina, testified before the Congressional Joint Economic Committee. He sadly stated that economic indicators point toward a "sluggish job growth" and that the so-called economic recovery is "close to faltering."

Chairman Bernanke went on to say the primary factor affecting consumer confidence was the lack of job growth. He further characterized the country's long-term unemployment rate as a "national crisis." This follows the President's admission Monday that voters are not better off than they were 4 years ago. With failed policies, the President needs to change course.

House Republicans have sent nearly 90 bills to the Senate for consideration, but only 20 have passed the Senate. Much of this legislation dealt directly with limiting spending, terminating failing housing programs, and encouraging job creation.

In conclusion, God bless our troops, and we will never forget September the 11th in the global war on terrorism.

FORD AND THE UAW

(Mr. HIGGINS asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. HIGGINS. Mr. Speaker, it is with great satisfaction that I report to the House today on the agreement reached between the Ford Motor Company and the United Auto Workers and its positive impact on the Nation and in western New York.

Under the agreement, Ford will increase its workforce at its plant in Hamburg, New York. Not only will they offer to rehire 120 workers who were laid off earlier this year, they will create 400 new jobs and create a $136 million investment in the facility. This is a substantial and generational commitment.

How did this happen? It was the recognition that western New York has a highly skilled and dependable workforce, with a long history of labor and management working together in cooperation. It is also the result of labor and management working diligently to get a deal done. Their goal was business growth and job creation, and they accomplished it without the brinksmanship and manufactured crises that have become far too common in Washington this year.

Perhaps Congress can learn from Ford and the UAW that when two sides sit down at the table and bargain in good faith toward a common good, the end can be more satisfying, resulting in new business investment and job growth.

THE CEMENT SECTOR REGULATORY RELIEF ACT OF 2011

(Mr. YOUNG of Indiana asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. YOUNG of Indiana. Mr. Speaker, yesterday, I had the opportunity to meet with Hilltop Resources, a concrete company that has a presence in my southern Indiana district. They were here to talk about how the new Cement MACT regulations would affect their business and their workforce.

Their cost of production would go up 7 to 10 percent—a huge hit for any business. They would have to import more of their raw materials from places like China—materials that are of a lesser quality. And those increased costs would require them to scale back their American workforce at a time when we need them to expand.

We cannot keep letting the EPA impose these burdensome and job-crushing regulations without any concern for how they affect our constituents. When we take up H.R. 2681 later today, we have the chance to help an industry that has already been hit hard by the recession. I urge my colleagues to support this measure.

UP2US ANNUAL COACH OF THE YEAR

(Mr. MCINTYRE asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. MCINTYRE. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize Up2Us, a leading youth sports development organization working to address childhood obesity and promote improved academic performance and constructive activities for youth. Up2Us supports a national network of nearly 500 member organizations operating in all 50 States, serving 25 million youth through both traditional and nontraditional sports programs.

Sharing best practices, advancing initiatives that extend opportunities to new players, and delivering quality programs in underserved communities, these are but some of the ways where a tremendous need for constructive outlets for our youth are occurring through this organization.
